2013 YOUNG ARTISTS' WATER EDUCATION POSTER CONTEST

Instructions for 4th Grade Teachers

The Utah Division of Water Resources announces the 28th Annual Young Artists' Water Education Poster Contest

Theme: Water is life

- POSTER CONTEST open to all 4th grade students.
- CERTIFICATES will be printed for every student that enters.
- RIVER BASIN PRIZE WINNERS, their parents and teachers honored at Annual Water Education Awards Banquet.
- GRAND PRIZE WINNER chosen from among the river basin winners. Winner announced at awards banquet.

This contest allows you to combine water/science education, individual creativity and artistic skills for a learning activity that meets many learning objectives in your curriculum.

WHAT TO DO

- TELL - Tell students about the contest and prizes. Make the contest a classroom project or let students begin their art in class and complete it at home.
- CREATE - Have students use the 2013 theme,
Water is Life
See enclosed Entry Rules for format requirements.
- ENTER - Attach enclosed Entry Form to back of the winning artwork in your school. Submit poster according to instructions on Entry Rules.

EMAIL list of all participating students to rickwebster@utah.gov.

JUDGING

- CHOOSE your own classroom winner.
- SELECT one winner per grade level per school.
- MAIL or deliver your school's entries to the Division of Water Resources address listed on Entry Form by March 2, 2013

CONTEST RULES - SEND HOME TO PARENTS

1. Entries must relate to the 2013 theme, Water is Life
2. Poster size is to be from 11" x 17" to 22" x 28" Entries smaller than 11" x 17" are NOT eligible! We encourage 22" x 28" for printing purposes.
3. Entries will be judged on basis of concept first and creative thought, sound principles, and artistic rendition second. Teacher and parental input is acceptable in development of the theme and principles upon which the artwork is based. Artistic rendition should be done solely by student. Combined entries by two or more students are not eligible.
4. An entry form must be completed for each state level entry, include student, teacher or parent signatures, and be taped on the back of the entry.
5. Entries become the property of the Utah Division of Water Resources. They may be used by the Division for educational purposes.
6. Entries accompanied by $4 for postage and handling fee will be returned to students.
7. Each Utah elementary school may submit one entry for state judging. Schools submitting more than one entry will be disqualified.
8. Each participant will receive a certificate.
9. Teachers are responsible for judging at the classroom level. They may request assistance from PTA volunteers, community artists, and/or local water experts.
10. State-level judging is under the direction of the Utah Division of Water Resources. Judging will be completed without referencing names or schools. One winner per river basin will be chosen.
11. All state entries must be postmarked by March 2, 2013 to qualify for state judging.
12. Drawing: Crayon, chalk, charcoal, pencil, ink, or any other medium may be used for drawing or sketching.
13. Painting: Any appropriate paint such as tempera, oil, and watercolor may be used.
14. Collage: Materials deemed suitable by art teachers. Collage composition should be secure enough to travel. Because of rough handling in the mail and effects of climactic changes, collages are strongly discouraged!
15. Printmaking: All graphic processes including linoleum cuts, and serigraphs may be used.
16. River Basin Winners will be honored at the Water Education Awards Banquet on May 4, 2013. Each basin winner will receive $100.
17. The winning school will receive $125. Transportation and housing will be at winner's expense. Individual trophies and school plaques will be awarded.
18. Contact our Water Education Specialist at 801-538-7299 for more information.
